

PROPOSED NEW BOARD MEMBERS FOR THE 2023 ELECTIONS

TRINA LIANG-LIN

Trina represented her school, St Joseph's Convent, in Netball winning 3 consecutive National championships with her team in both the C and B divisions. She continued to play and captain Netball whilst in university as well as train and play with the Singapore national team.

Trina is a fund manager for a US$7bn firm focused on green real estate investments in Asia. She is Singapore's representative to the G20 for Women appointed by Singapore's Ministry of Finance and co-chair of ACCORD for National Service appointed by the Ministry of Defence.

She is President of Women in Sustainability and Environment (WISE) Singapore. She is Past president of both UN Women Singapore (United Nations) (2011 to 2019) and the Financial Women's Association Singapore (2005 to 2008). And the past vice president of the Singapore Council of Women's Organizations (SCWO - 2014 to 2018) and Co-chair of BoardAgender (2017 to 2020).

Her board appointments include World Wildlife Fund for Nature (WWF) and SPCA Singapore, the Community Foundation of Singapore, Singapore Repertory Theatre and United Women Singapore.

In 2014, she was appointed Chairperson of the Philanthropy in Asia summit organized by NVPC. From 2015 to 2019 she was appointed co-chair of the President of Singapore's Volunteer and Philanthropy Awards (PVPA).

She, together with her husband, set up the Lin Foundation in 2016, an Asian based foundation that believes that education, employment and healthcare, especially for women and girls, are basic human rights. The Lin Foundation Scholarship was established to make overseas exchange programmes a reality for SMU students with demonstrated financial needs. It also works with proven and dedicated third parties in the philanthropy space such as Singapore's Community Foundation and the Singapore Committee for UN Women.

HANY SOH

Hany is the Director of MSC Law Corporation. She graduated in 2011 from the University of Liverpool with the Bachelor of Laws (Upper Second Class Honours) and was admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2013. Hany also holds a Diploma in Law & Management from Temasek Polytechnic.

Hany serves as Chairperson of the Community Legal Clinics Committee of the Law Society of Singapore Pro Bono Services (LSPBS); member of Law Society's Family Law Practice Committee and Women in Practice Committee.

Hany stood as a People's Action Party (PAP) candidate in the 2020 Singapore General Elections and was elected as a Member of Parliament (MP) for Marsiling-Yew Tee GRC. She serves as the Grassroots Adviser for Marsiling- Yew Tee GRC (Woodgrove division) and as Vice-Chairperson of Marsiling-Yew Tee Town Council.

She sits in the Government Parliamentary Committees (GPC) for Communications and Information; Culture, Community and Youth as well as Sustainability and the Environment. She is also the Head of Policy for PAP Women's Wing.

When taking a break from work and serving the community, Hany enjoys spending her free time bonding with her 4-year-old mini-me.

LEE MIN LI

Min Li is the Senior General Manager for Netball in Singapore Sports School since 2007.

A past national player, she has been contributing back to netball for many years as a coach, coach presenter, team manager and national selector. She is no stranger to netball, having served in the past on the Netball Board for 18 years including as the Honorary Secretary of the Association.

A qualified teacher, she obtained her degree in Sports Science from Loughborough University in 1995. In 2022, she completed Postgraduate Certificate in International Sports Management.
